WAYNE KLEIN, RECEIVER For the Quarter Ending September 30, 2015 2:12-cv-00591 BSJ The Honorable Bruce S. Jenkins
---	--

R. Wayne Klein, the Court-Appointed Receiver (the “Receiver”) of National Note of Utah, LC (“National Note”), as well as certain subsidiaries and entities affiliated with National Note (“Related Entities”), and the assets of Wayne LaMar Palmer (“Palmer”), collectively, the “Receivership Entities” hereby submits this Thirteenth Status Report for the period July 1, 2015 through September 30, 2015 (the “Reporting Period”).

I.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This action (the “Civil Case”) was commenced by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on June 25, 2012 against Defendants Palmer and National Note by the filing of a Complaint in the United States District Court for the District of Utah (the “Court”).¹ The court has ordered the Civil Case to proceed to trial on November 2, 2015.

On August 19, 2015, a grand jury indictment was issued for Palmer and his cousin, Julieann Palmer Martin. They were charged with wire fraud, mail fraud, and money laundering. The criminal case is pending.

This is the Thirteenth Status Report for the period of July 1, 2015 through September 30, 2015, defined above as the “Reporting Period.”

II.

CONTINUED OPERATIONS

The Receiver is no longer operating any businesses or rental properties of the Receivership Estate.

III.

REAL ESTATE HOLDINGS

During the Reporting Period, the Receiver closed the sale of four properties, received notice that a prospective buyer had withdrawn offers for two properties, granted a prospective buyer a short extension of its time to complete due diligence on five properties, and actively marketed other properties for sale. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a chart setting forth the status of all real properties in the Receivership Estate as of September 30, 2015.

A. Liens and Other Interests Asserted Against Real Properties.

1. Assignments of Beneficial Interests (“ABIs”). At the time the Receiver was appointed, 349 ABIs had been recorded against 49 properties in the Receivership Estate, representing approximately $32.4 million in possible claims against those properties. As a result of the Receiver's efforts, the majority of those ABIs have been voluntarily released, released through settlement, or invalidated through default judgments. At the commencement of the Reporting Period, only fifteen ABIs remained, and during the Reporting Period, the Receiver obtained releases or default judgments related to seven additional ABIs.² These seven ABIs were made against five properties and were asserted in an amount totaling $810,859.40. Thus, at the end of this Reporting Period, only eight ABIs remain, representing claims asserted in the total amount of $1,525,000.00 against three properties: Elkhorn Lot number 11, Expressway Business Park, and Farrell Business Park.³ Litigation against the holders of these remaining ABIs is ongoing.⁴

Currently, if properties are sold by the Receiver that have ABIs recorded against them, the net sale proceeds for the property are deposited into the “Real Estate Account,” a segregated reserve account. As ABIs are released or held to be invalid, the Receiver has transferred funds being held in the Real Estate Account to the Receivership Estate’s “Operating ² During the Reporting Period, the Receiver obtained default judgments voiding the ABIs held by Harvest Time Ministries (asserting a $125,000.00 interest), Mattie Mae Small (asserting a $12,000.00 interest), and Vetco (asserting a $550,000.00 interest). See Klein v. Harvest Time Ministries, Case No. 2:13-cv-00742-BCW (D. Utah) (action commenced prior to Klein v. Adams); Klein v. Adams, Case No. 2:14-cv-00614-BSJ (D. Utah).

Account.” During the Reporting Period, the Receiver transferred a total of $1,014,671.64 from the Real Estate Account to the Operating Account as a result of the release or invalidation of ABIs recorded against the Clearview Business Park, Autumn Ridge, Fairfield, and Elkhorn Ridge Lot number48.

2. Deeds of Trust: The Receiver identified 13 properties in the Receivership Estate on which deeds of trust had been recorded at the time of his appointment. At this time, only three properties have trust deeds recorded against them: Overland Trails, located in Eagle Mountain, Utah; certain lots in the Almond Heights development located in Toquerville, Utah; and one parcel of the land associated with the Expressway Business Park located in Spanish Fork, Utah.

B. Real Property Sales That Closed During the Reporting Period. Four Court-approved real property sales were closed by the Receiver during the Reporting Period.

1. Almond Heights Lot F: On August 14, 2015, the Court entered an Order approving a private sale of this residential building lot located in Toquerville, Utah.⁵ The sale closed on August 24, 2015, with the Receivership Estate receiving $24,733.41 in net sales proceeds, which were deposited into the Operating Account.

2. Almond Heights Lots 23 and 24: On September 1, 2015, the Court entered an Order approving a private sale of these two residential building lots also located in Toquerville, Utah.⁶ These sales closed on August 24, 2015, with the Receivership Estate receiving $47,018.30 in net sales proceeds. These lots, along with other lots in the Almond

Heights development, are subject to disputed deeds of trust held by Real Estate Investment Partners. As a result of the disputed interests, the Receiver has deposited the net sales proceeds into the Receivership Estate's Real Estate Account pending resolution of the dispute.⁷

3. Byron West Industrial Park Lot 3, Block 1: On August 17, 2015, the Court entered an Order approving a public sale of this commercial building lot located in Minnesota.⁸ The scheduled auction was canceled when because the Receiver received no other offers, and the property was sold to the stalking horse bidder. The sale closed on September 30, 2015, with the Receivership Estate receiving $95,340.47 in net sales proceeds, which proceeds were deposited into the Receivership Estate's Operating Account. On that same day, the Receiver filed a Notice of Public Sale Results was filed with the Court.⁹

C. Offers on Real Properties That Were Withdrawn. On July 14, 2015, the Receiver preliminarily accepted offers to purchase Almond Heights Lots numbers 19 and 20. On September 25, 2015, after conducting agreed due diligence, the potential buyer withdrew its offer, stating that the lots were not suitable for the homes it planned to build.

D. Offers Preliminarily Accepted on Real Properties. During the Reporting Period, the Receiver received offers to purchase Almond Heights Lots numbers C-2, F-3, 14, 15, and 18. The agreed due diligence period was to expire on September 25, 2015, but at the request of the potential buyer, the Receiver agreed to extend the due diligence period until October 9, ⁷ Real Estate Investment Partners asserts a lien against several of the Almond Heights lots, claiming that the amount of its secured claim is $158,655.62.

MINERAL ORES

At the time of the Receiver's appointment, a National Note affiliate owned certain 60 tons of ore which it claimed were worth over $1.2 billion. As described in his Second Status Report,¹⁰ the Receiver previously entered into a Management Agreement with HMI Management LLC ("HMI"), an entity controlled by a group of investors, permitting HMI to investigate whether these ores have any commercial value.

On July 13, 2015, the Receiver obtained an appraisal of the ores performed by a professor of geology at Brigham Young University (the "Ore Report"). The appraisal involved analyzing the ore with an X-ray fluorescence spectrometer and taking 15 different samples of the ore, which were tested in labs for the presence of precious metals. Samples were sent to multiple labs, as a means of verifying the accuracy of results.

The Ore Report states that the ore has low concentrations of gold, platinum, and palladium. Out of the 60 tons, the total value of these precious metals totals approximately $960.00. The cost of extracting the precious metals would exceed the value of the metals. Thus, according to the Ore Report, the ore has no commercially-valuable precious metals.

The Ore Report also indicates that the ore has high concentrations of iron, vanadium, and chromium. It is unclear whether the costs of moving the ores and then extracting and purifying these metals would yield net profits for the Receivership Estate.

¹⁰ Second Report, pp. 18-19.

The Receiver has had discussions with representatives of HMI to explore their interest in the ore. If the Receiver is unable to find a buyer, he expects to abandon the Receivership Estate's interest in the ore.

V.

LITIGATION

Litigation commenced by the Receiver since his appointment has involved the litigation to void ABIs, discussed in Part III.A.1 above, litigation to invalidate, when appropriate, trust deeds asserted against real properties of the Receivership Estate, and lawsuits to claw back false profits paid to investors and to collect assets of the Receivership Estate, both of which are discussed below.

A. Clawback Claims Being Pursued by the Receivership Estate. The Receiver filed approximately 140 lawsuits to recover transfers made by National Note and its affiliated entities. The Receiver's investigation is ongoing and additional lawsuits may be filed.

1. Status of Clawback Actions. As of the close of the Reporting Period, only ten of the total 140 lawsuits are still pending. This was in part due to settlements reached and judgments obtained by the Receiver during the Reporting Period. A summary of the status of the remaining ten actions as well as significant litigation events during the Reporting Period are as follows:

(i) Settlements. In two lawsuits, settlement agreements were executed prior to the close of the Reporting Period.¹¹ In addition, the Receiver obtained a settlement in a third suit as a result of a Court-mediated settlement conference.¹²

(ii) Partial Summary Judgments. The Receiver obtained Orders granting his Motions for Partial Summary Judgment in six cases during the Reporting Period.¹³

b. Pending Summary Judgment Motions. At the close of the Reporting Period, the Receiver had two Motions for Partial Summary Judgment pending.

(i) The first Motion was filed in the proceeding against Defendant Terry Stallman.¹⁴ The Court in that proceeding requested that the Receiver submit a proposed Memorandum Decision and Order granting the Motion, which the Receiver submitted to the Court on September 24, 2015.

(ii) The second Motion was filed in the proceeding against Joe and Catherine Lovato.¹⁵ On September 3, 2015, the Receiver filed a Request to Submit the Motion for Decision.

¹⁴ Klein v. Stallman, Case No. 2:13-cv-00409-DN (D. Utah).

¹⁵ Klein v. Lovato, 2:13-cv-00506-DAK (D. Utah).

c. Scheduling Orders/Trial Dates Set. In six cases,¹⁶ litigation is moving forward as follows:

(i) In the proceeding against Michelle Turpin, the Court has entered a Scheduling Order. Dispositive motions have been filed, and the discovery deadline is set for October 30, 2015.

(ii) In the proceeding against Victor Wagner, the Court has entered a Scheduling Order setting discovery and dispositive motion deadlines for November 30, 2015.

(iii) The proceeding against Christy Palmer, Wayne Palmer's spouse, has been delayed because Ms. Palmer filed for relief under Chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code during the Reporting Period. Ms. Palmer did not appear at her scheduled meeting of creditors, and it is anticipated that her case will be dismissed whereupon the Receiver will recommence his suit against her.

(iv) On September 9, 2015, the Court entered an Order in the proceeding against Kleen Water Power adding Carlton Gentry, the company's president, as a defendant, and Mr. Gentry is in the process of being served in Canada pursuant to the Hague Convention.

(v) In the proceeding against the Blakeslee Family Trust and Joel Blakeslee, as indicated above, the Court entered partial summary judgment against the Blakeslee Family Trust. Discovery is currently being conducted on the Receiver's claim against Joel Blakeslee as a subsequent transferee. The Court has entered a scheduling Order setting the dispositive motions deadline for December 31, 2015.

(vi) In the proceeding against M&M Andreasen Investments, Inc. and Max Andreasen, as indicated above, the Court entered summary judgment against M&M Andreasen. Discovery is currently being conducted on the Receiver's claim against Max Andreasen as a subsequent transferee.

B. Settlement of Litigation. During the Reporting Period, the Court approved the following settlement agreements:

1. Thirteenth Motion to Approve Settlement Agreements. On July 9, 2015, the Court entered an Order approved seven settlement agreements that are expected to bring $93,000.00 into the Receivership Estate.¹⁷ As of September 30, 2015, $33,008.00 of this amount has been paid.

¹⁷ Docket No. 966.

2. Fourteenth Motion Approve Settlement Agreements. On September 1, 2015, the Court entered an Order approving nine settlement agreements that are expected to bring $304,379.28 into the Receivership Estate.¹⁸ As of September 30, 2015, $206,799.28 has been paid to the Receivership Estate. As part of this Order, the Court also approved a tenth settlement, where the amount that will be recovered by the Receiver is uncertain inasmuch as the Receivership Estates promissory note in the amount of $203,797.83 which is backed by a deed of trust on property in Virginia. However, the property is encumbered and is the subject of litigation, so it is unclear how much the Receivership will actually receive when the property is sold and the related litigation is concluded.

VI.

CLAIMS PROCESS

On September 1, 2015, the Court entered an Order Granting Receiver's Amended Motion Seeking Approval of Proposed Claim Procedures and Accompanying Forms and Setting Bar Date.¹⁹ The bar date to file proofs of claim is November 3, 2015. As set forth in the Certificate of Service that the Receiver has filed,²⁰ on or about September 2, 2015, the Receiver commenced service of bar date notices and Proof of Claim forms. In cases where forms were returned as undeliverable, the Receiver has used his best efforts to locate the potential claimant and deliver the forms.²¹ Publication service has also been made in accordance with the procedures approved

NEXT STEPS

At this time, the Receiver anticipates addressing the following priorities in the coming months:

the claimants of his receipt of the Claim and of the assigned Claim number. Both prior to and after the Bar Date, the Receiver will engage in the process of analyzing Claims received, requesting additional information when needed, and attempting to work out agreements with claimants who have submitted Claims in amounts that do not coincide with the Receiver's records. The Receiver intends to file a report with the Court recommending allowed Claim amounts in the first quarter of 2016.

2. Litigation. As discussed in Part V above, the Receiver anticipates continuation of litigation seeking to invalidate eight remaining ABIs, as well as litigation of several remaining ancillary proceedings to recover property of the Receivership Estate. The Receiver may also be required to file additional lawsuits against potential defendants with whom he has entered tolling agreements if settlement negotiations are not fruitful.

3. Collection of Judgments. The Receiver anticipates continuing his efforts to execute on judgments that he has obtained.

4. Property Sales. The Receiver will continue his efforts to sell additional real estate properties in the Receivership Estate. Based on offers already received, the Receiver expects to sell at least five properties during the next Reporting Period. It is anticipated that the sale of some of the remaining properties, especially those with environmental problems, will take additional time.

IX.

CONCLUSION

Solid progress was made during the Reporting Period. The Receiver looks forward to completing the claims process so recovered funds can begin to be returned to investors.
